

Michael Moore as Willie Nelson

Michael Moore was born and raised in McKinney, Texas. His passion for Willie's music came at an early age. "I can remember hearing his music coming out of my grandmother's old AM radio," and even then Michael knew that there was something unique about Willie Nelson. Nelson's voice and unusual style of phrasing are hard to match. Through many years of study and about a million "Whiskey Rivers" later, Moore's ability to capture the country music legend's voice and style are considered by many to be the best in the world. Michael is also an accomplished guitar player and performs all of the guitar parts played by Nelson in his shows.

When asked what kind of music he likes, Moore said, "Everything from The Carpenters to Metallica." Michael has performed his Willie tribute show throughout the USA as a solo artist and also with several top tribute shows including Cavalcade of Stars, Mirror Image, Memories Theatre and Superstars Live in Concert, a BC Entertainment, Inc. production.

Bob Gill as Waylon Jennings

Bob Gill has been singing since his early preschool years and has performed in a varied phases from a one man band show incorporating the use of floor bass, guitar and beat box to a six piece cover country band. He has performed in Nashville and other venues across North America attracting growing audiences along the way. He has several albums to his credit and became interested in Waylon's music when he first heard him in the early seventies and since then has amassed a repertoire of most of the songs ever recorded by Waylon. During his travels, he increasingly became compared to Waylon in both appearance and vocal style.

Since Waylon's untimely death in February 2002, Bob has had an inner desire (and destiny) to focus exclusively on preserving for eternity the music of his idol. When you hear Bob sing Waylon's music and close your eyes, you are immediately positioned in the midst of fans at any one of the late and great performer's concerts. Bob, like Waylon, sings with a style that seems to come from the soul and reflects both the joy and pain of a man who has experienced each.

Alan Dryman as Johnny Cash

Alan Dryman as Johnny Cash in a style only Cash could have. Through immense respect, dignity and love for Johnny Cash, the man, Dryman sings the melodies and music of his American legend.

As an accomplished musician and singer, Dryman brings Johnny Cash back to perform songs such as "Walk the Line" and "Daddy Sang Bass." Equally impressive is the history brought to life when you listen to the songs and music that wind through the Johnny Cash years and invoke special memories held by fans all around the world. The Legend of Johnny Cash lives on through the melodic voice of Alan Dryman.

Having loved Johnny Cash since he was very young, Alan Dryman has also played as Johnny Cash on stages all over the United States, including a performance at the legendary Grand Ole Opry in Nashville Tennessee. Standing tall, sauntering through a crowd of fans and swinging the guitar casually upon his back, imagine all the strength of Johnny Cash poised to bring a smooth melody such as "I Guess Things Happen That Way." Then smile as you return to an era and you find your foot tapping once again to the tune of "Ring of Fire."

The feeling of Johnny Cash music comes alive through the love and dedication that Alan Dryman has for the life and music of Johnny Cash.

