To Whom It May Concern:

If you need an Old West Rocking Good Time, I would highly recommend using Silverado Ranch Productions. Our company used the production company for entertainment and decorations in October, 2005 and turned what would have been an boring dinner into a fun and unique experience.

Walking into the ball room, the decorations made you feel like you were in the Old West. The 7-piece Band and the Saloon Girls had people on their feet dancing. Line dances were taught by the pretty Saloon Girls and then the band played so all could use their new line dancing skills. The Western characters including John Wayne, Wild Bill Hickcock, and several other cowboys made the guests feel part of the Old West. They were taught roping, quick draws with real guns and had the pictures made as Wanted posters in Western costumes, a very treasured keepsake of the event.

People are still talking about the Western night and it will be hard to top this one. We very much enjoyed working with Arnold Sanchez, the coordinator and all his staff. I would highly recommend this group and hope I can use them again.
